Sundays are fun days at the Atlantic City Free Public Library

The Atlantic City Free Public Library's weekly Sunday programs for January and February are fun and educational. Participants will learn about a variety of topics, including Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr., Chinese New Year and African tribal designs.

The weekly programs are free. Children nine years of age or younger must be accompanied by an adult. Please call (609) 345-2269, ext. 3050, for more information.

- I Have a Dream Too Collage on Sunday, Jan. 15, at 2 p.m. – On Aug. 23, 1963, Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. gave his famous “I Have A Dream” speech and shared his vision of an integrated and unified world. Working on a collective collage, participants will use a variety of media to create an artwork that reflects the dreams of a new generation. Supplies are provided. Ages 8 through adult.
- Dragon Puppet on Sunday, Jan. 22, at 2 p.m. – During Chinese New Year celebrations, dragon costumes and puppets are always a part of the party. Participants will use a variety of materials to create their own Year of the Dragon puppet. Supplies are provided. Ages 8 through adult.
- Build a Kite on Sunday, Jan. 29, at 2 p.m. – Benjamin Franklin was an inventor who famously used a kite for experiments with electricity. Participants will celebrate Franklin's birthday by building and decorating working kites ... not to be flown in a lightning storm! Supplies are provided. Ages 8 through adult.
- Chinese Lantern on Sunday, Feb. 5, at 2 p.m. – The lantern festival is a traditional Chinese Festival where celebrants make and decorate lovely paper lanterns using zodiac animals, historic figures and other Chinese symbols. Make your own and take it home. Supplies are provided. Ages 8 through adult.
- Stained Glass Candleholders on Sunday, Feb. 12, at 2 p.m. – Make your own beautiful candleholder using stained glass. A tea light placed inside makes a lovely light. Supplies are provided. Ages 8 through adult.
- Mardi Gras Masks on Sunday, Feb. 19, at 2 p.m. – Using ordinary materials found around the house, participants will create their own Mardi Gras mask designs and build them. Supplies are provided. Ages 8 through adult.
- African Shields on Sunday, Feb. 26, at 2 p.m. – Celebrate the beauty and tradition of African tribal designs. Participants will learn about and make colorful masks using simple materials. Supplies are provided. Ages 8 through adult.
